

Edinburgh Stag & Hen Weekends

Quad Bikes

Do you enjoy a nice quiet Sunday drive? Not a care in the world, as you cruise along on tarmac? Well forget about it, this is off road Quad Biking!!

An adrenaline-pumping, knuckle whitening rush of rubber on dirt, tyre on track! Every bump is felt as you hurtle round on off road Honda Quad Bikes. It's one of the down and dirtiest adventure activity holidays in the UK and of course here in Edinburgh, Scotland, off road quad biking tends to be one of the muddiest as well.

As Stag & Hen parties go if you're looking for a way to let of steam and let loose before your big wild night out on the town, do it with a 'ride' on Quad Bikes here in Edinburgh, Scotland!

Feel the power, feel the control, feel the energy of the Earth pulsing its way up through every vein in your Quad Bike bound body & SCREAM!!!
